
June-September 2020

The U.S.-Mexico Foundation and Meridian International Center adapted their USMexico360 Program to the current times. As such, we introduced the USMexico360 Seminar in which selected policy shapers took part in 4 sessions on the current state of Mexico and the future of the US-Mexico relation. These sessions were held once a month and were led by experts to discuss critical issues connected to the bilateral relationship.

Speakers:

- Dr. Luis Foncerrada, Rector of the School of Business and Economics at the Anáhuac del Mayab University in Mérida, Yucatán
Topic: Economics
- Dr. Alejandro Poiré, Rector of the ITESM School of Social Sciences and Government
Topic: Security and Rule of Law
- Alexandra Haas, Director at Oxfam México, researcher and visiting professor at CIDE
Topic: Migration
- Alehira Orozco, Head of Government Affairs, Mercado Libre and President of the Fintech Association of Mexico
Topic: Digital Economy

