August 26-31 2019

The week of August 26 to 31, as part of the U.S.-Mexico 360 program, we visited Mexico in collaboration with ACYPL. On this trip we met with personalities from various sectors and went to cultural sites within the City.

The first day we met in Washington, DC, with Chris Wilson (Mexico Institute) and with Libby Rosenbaum (ACYPL). We also talked to Ambassador Martha Bárcena and she shared her vision on the bilateral relationship.

In Mexico, we had breakfast with members of the staff of the US Embassy in Mexico, their views are really interesting, since they approach things from other perspectives. We had the opportunity to visit Walmart México and Latam HQs, where Javier Mancera gave us a tour of the facilities. We met at the MoFA with Ambassador Mario Chacón and Julián Escutia, who always share relevant information that gives our delegates an approach to the Federal Government's point of view.

We thank the Chairman of our Board, Emilio Cadena, for the conversation he had with the delegation on the manufacturing scene, bilateral talent and the opportunities he sees in the binational relationship. We also met with Don Juan Gallardo of the CMN, his vision of Mexico and the relationship with the United States is a central axis for the country.

The following days we had meetings with Gustavo Almaráz, Jana Nieto, Israel Hernandez and Ana López Mestre (AMCHAM), also with Ken Smith (USMCA), the law firm Nader Hayaux and Goebel, Hola Code, Laboratorio Social, Javier Treviño (CCE) and Dan DeFossey.

Like every trip, we took the delegation to see places in the city that add the cultural part of the program, this time we went to Xochimilco with Yolcán, Basílica de Guadalupe, we had a Tequila tasting with Tequila Volcan de mi Tierra and a Tour in the National Palace.
