
August-September 2020

In this Inbound sessions, in partnership with ACYPL, delegates had an opportunity for in-depth exploration and understanding of the federal, regional and local government, judiciary, policymaking structures, elections and political campaigns, and bilateral relations between Mexico and the United States.

Speakers:

- Shannon Billings, CFO & Chief of Staff, ACYPL
Topic: US Government 101
- Mike Inganamort, Council President of Chester Township
Topic: Local Government
- Mary Tinkler, Charleston County Treasurer
Topic: Local Economy and Elections
- Marvin Pendarvis, Member, South Carolina House of Representatives
Topic: Managing constituent concerns during divisive moments
- Antoine Battle, Director of Communications, Executive Office of the Mayor—Serve D.C.
Topic: Service and Volunteerism
- Sergio Gomez Lora, CEO, Business Council of Mexico Representation to the United States (CCE)
Topic: Trade between Mexico and the US
- Enrique Perret, Executive Director, U.S.-Mexico Foundation
Topic: US-Mexico Relations
- Chase Glenn, Executive Director, Alliance for Full Acceptance (AFFA)
Topic: Advocacy for LGBTQ+ Communities
- Rachel Hoff, Policy Director, The Ronald Reagan Presidential Library Foundation and Institute
Topic: The resources and initiatives of the Ronald Reagan Foundation and Institute
- Jessie Connelly, Polling and Policy Director, National Republican Senatorial Committee (NRSC)
Topic: Using public and private information in U.S. elections