Coverage Report

May 16th to June 14th 2022

During the period, 79 publications related to the bilateral relationship between Mexico and the United States were compiled. 52 of the total publications were made by Mexican think tanks, while 27 publications were made by United States think tanks. The Consejo Mexicano de Asuntos Internacionales (COMEXI) was the center with the most publications related to the bilateral relationship with 50 publications, followed by the Mexico Institute with 10 publications and the Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS) with 7 publications.

The main topic was the Summit of the Americas that took place from June 6 to 10 in the city of Los Angeles, California. The articles focused mainly on President Andrés Manuel López Obrador absence and the institutional relationship between Mexico and the United States. Followed by trade and the USMCA, and immigration issues, focused on DACA, job opportunities and Title 42. Topics such as security and governance, focused on the Uvalde massacre, the sale of weapons and drug trafficking. Supply chains, energy, and economics were also among the publications. Finally other topics discussed include poverty, the US government, China, remittances, among others.
