

---

August - September 2022

The U.S.-Mexico Foundation offered a USMexico360 program for members of the Mexican Association of Secretaries of Development (Asociación Mexicana de Secretarios de Desarrollo Económico) 47 members of 22 Mexican states took part in 4 sessions on the current state of Mexico and the future of the US-Mexico relation.

These sessions are led by experts to discuss critical issues connected of the bilateral relationship.

Speakers:

- Sergio Gómez Lora of the CCE in Washington D.C.
  - Emilio Cadena, CEO at Prodensa and Chairman of the USMF
- Topic: Economic and Commercial Interdependence

- Dra. Cecilia Farfán, Program Director of Research Security Center at the Security, University of California San Diego
  - Dr. Guillermo Trejo, University of Notre Dame
- Topic: Security and Rule of Law and Education Bilateral vision

- Ariel G. Ruiz, Policy Analyst at Migration Policy Institute
- Topic: Migration

- Ambassador Marcela Celorio, General Consul in L.A.
  - Andrés Martínez , ASU and Board Member of the USMF
- Topic: Soft Power