
April 17 - 21, 2023

The U.S.-Mexico Foundation partnered with the Meridian International Center to bring 13 policy-shapers from the U.S. to Mexico City and meet with relevant stakeholders from the public, private and social sectors. During the meetings, the U.S.-Mexico 360 cohort expanded their knowledge on Mexican politics and government, economy, industry, education, trade, media, and advocacy. The five-day trip included a cultural immersion to the country through food and art.

Speakers included:

- Eduardo Clark, Managing Director of Digital Government, Gobierno de la Ciudad de México
- Sen. Claudia Ruiz Massieu, Chair of the Special Committee to Follow Up the USMCA
- Alejandro Mendiola, Partner & Head of Nader, Hayaux & Goebel's Antitrust Practice
- Emilio Cadena, CEO, Prodensa
- Rogelio Arzate, Director Government Relations and Institutional Affairs, General Motors
- Mark Richardson, Minister Counsellor, Commercial Affairs and Senior Trade Commissioner
- Maribel Quiroga, CEO Mexico's Wine and Spirit Trade Association
- Martin Skelton, CEO, Casa Pedro Domecq
- Saskia Niño de Rivera, Co-Founder and President, Reinserta
- Amy Glover, President and Co-founding Partner, Agil(e)
- Pablo Gonzalez Guajardo, CEO, Kimberly Clark
- María Teresa Arnal, Former Head of Latam, Stripe
- Sen. Luis David Ortiz Salinas, Senator, Movimiento Ciudadano
- Felipe Vallejo, Chief Regulatory and Corporate Affairs Officer, Bitso
- Sara Hayden Van Velkingburgh, Senior Analyst Miranda Partners
- Giovanni Lepri, Representative, UNHCR Mexico
- Florian Hoepfner, Senior Durable Solutions Officer, UNHCR Mexico
- Roberto Velasco, Chief Officer for North America, Secretary of Foreign Affairs
- Sergio Gómez Lora, Managing Director, IQOM Inteligencia Comercial
- Bosco Martí, Global Director of Institutional Affairs and Communications, Aleatica